THE CRUMB

Vol. 11

August 20, 1936

No. 1

Bread Loaf Inn and the Director of the Conference extend to you a very cordial welcome. This bulletin, The Crumb, is the official newspaper of the Conference, and will ordinarily be left daily at your place in the dining room. It will contain notices of lectures, discussions, and other activities of the Conference, together with such other information as may be relevant.

#

As soon as possible after registering at the Inn desk and discovering your quarters, please see the Director, Mr. Morrison, and register with him. ^{Contributors should} Bring to Mr. Morrison all manuscript which you wish to submit to staff members. ^{They} ^{registering} After leaving your manuscript with Mr. Morrison, please consult Mrs. Powell who will complete all arrangements regarding fees.

Registration with both Mr. Morrison and Mrs. Powell on ^{well} ~~Thursday~~ ^{18th} the 20th is important. Please be sure to see them as soon after your arrival as you can. Mr. Morrison will be in the Director's Office from 2:00 until 5:30 in the afternoon.

At eight in the evening a reception for all members of the Conference will be held in the music hall. The Director will outline the program and offer to those attending the Conference suggestions and pointers for making the most profitable use of it.

EXPECTATIONS:

On Friday evening Robert Frost is expected as a guest speaker, and Saturday evening John Farrar.

ADDED ATTRACTIONS:

Miss Vickery will serve tea and lesser refreshments in the parlor of Fritz Cottage from 3:30 to 5:00 P.M. and from 8:45 to 9:45 P.M.

The Library will be open from 2:00 to 5:00 P.M. daily in charge of Mr. ^{Munford} Parker.

The Bookstore, under the stairs by the Director's Office, will be open from ~~2:00 to 2:30~~ P.M. and 7:00 to 8:00 P.M. under the charge of Mr. Munford.

INN SUGGESTIONS:

Please do not tip the employees of the Inn who are, in the main, college students and who all are glad to be of any assistance.

The management of the Inn requests that one smoke in the music hall or the library. Stringent fire regulations demand the constant enforcement of this request. At the same time it will be appreciated if people will throw their cigarette butts in the baskets provided for such emergencies. Great pains have been taken to clear the grounds, so please help to keep them in good order.

State laws prohibit the parking of cars on the highway. A parking space has been provided near the barns where all guests should park their cars.

Friday August 21st

Lectures:

- 9:00 Miss Edith Mirrieles will talk on an
"Approach to the Short Story".
- 10:00 Mr. Bernard DeVoto will discuss that period
"Before beginning a Novel".
- 11:00 Mr. Robert Hillyer will give his first talk
"The Technique of Verse - 1"

Meals:

The meal hours are as follows:

- Breakfast 8:00 - 9:00
- Luncheon 12:45 - 1:30
- Dinner 6:00 - 7:00

The dining room will be closed after the stated hours and no meals will be served after that time.

Fellowship:

Mr. DeVoto would like to meet with the "fellows" to-day at 2:30 P.M. in the parlor of Treman Cottage.

Exchange:

Some lady has switched blue coats with and without the sanction of Miss Gardner. Please examine your coat.

Books:

Mr. Borden of the Yankee Bookshop will exhibit a selection of popular books after lunch on the Inn porch.

News:

Mr. Rich will be here at noon to take orders for daily newspapers and their delivery during Conference.

Saturday August 22

Lectures:

- 9:00 Mr. Bernard DeVoto will talk on "The One Indispensible of Fiction".
- 10:00 Mr. John Mason Brown will present
"Problems of the Play Nos. 1 - 50".
- 11:00 Mr. Robert Hillyer will speak on
"The Technique of Verse - 2".

This evening at 8:00 P.M. Miss Edith Mirrieles will give the second of her four lectures on "The Structure of the Short Story" entitled "Short Story - Time Treatment".

Audition:

Guests of Bread Loaf Inn who are not registered as members of the Writers' Conference may attend lectures and other public exercises of the Conference on payment at the Director's Office of the following fees:

Any one lecture:	$1.50
All lectures on any one day	$4.00

These rates are intended only for the convenience of transient guests of the Inn. They do not apply to auditors regularly registered as members of the Conference either for the full term or for one week. Fees by the day admit only to lectures, and not to any other privileges of the Conference. Evening lectures are, as always, open to anyone at Bread Loaf without charge.

Music Hall:

You are again reminded of the fire regulations which prohibit any smoking in the music hall.

Postponement:

The Conference regrets the slight illness which prevents Mr. John Farrar's visit this weekend. We hope that he will be here sometime the second week of the Conference.

Mail Hours:

Mail arrives at 10:30 A.M.

and at 3:15 P.M.

Mail to depart in the morning must be in the box at 8:45 A.M. and by 1:45 P.M. for the afternoon mail.

Inselbuchers:

Mr. Parker will sell Albertina prints, Vienna cards, and Inselbuchers in the blue parlor after dinner.

Taxi:

The taxi is available at all times. Trips to churches in Middlebury are made every Sunday morning. The fee for a round trip to Middlebury is $4.00 for the car regardless of the number of passengers. The taxi can accomodate seven passengers. Leave all calls at the Desk. All church calls should be in the office at the desk 9:00 P.M. Saturday.

Typing:

Green & Taylor are eager to do professional typing for $.10 per double spaced page, paper to be supplied with the manuscript. Leave requests at the office, or see the waiters in question personally.

Photographic Exchange:

On the bulletin board are views and photographs of celebrities taken at Bread Loaf. If you wish them sign the sheets below promptly as they will be changed twice a week.

(3)

Mr. Robert Frost has consented to be in the music hall for a fourth discussion hour beginning at noon to-day.

Copies of several of Mr. Frost's books are expected at the Bookstore during the morning or early in the afternoon.

We are glad to have Mr. Louis Untermeyer as a guest at the Conference with Mr. Frost.

Monday August 24

LECTURES:

9:00 Mr. Robert Hillyer will give

"The Technique of Verse - No. 3"

10:00 Miss Edith Mirrieles will give the third of her lectures on "The Structure of the Short Story", entitled "Point of View".

11:00 Mr. John Mason Brown will talk on

"Plenty of Problems for the Play Writer".

Exhibition of Books:

Books done by the staff members,
fellows, and friends of the Conference will be exhibited in the Inn parlor this afternoon and evening. Our collection is especially rich in the works of Mr. Frost, Mr. DeVoto, and of Mr. Munson. A bibliography of faculty and fellows will also be available.

Payment of Fees:

Mrs. Powell will be in the Director's office from 2:30 to 3:30 P.M. to-day to allow Conference members to complete payment of their fees. All involved please call at Mr. Morrison's office at that time.

Paging a Lady:

If Mrs. J.J.Powells is present to-day, will she kindly get in touch with Mr. Morrison's office?

Information Wanted:

Conference members of all categories will help Mr. Morrison's office greatly by submitting bibliographies of their published work, as complete as possible. These should be accompanied by home addresses and statements of Conference sessions attended.

Tuesday August 25

LECTURES:

9:00 Mr. Gorham Munson will speak on

"How to Write an Article".

10:00 Mr. Bernard DeVoto will give a "Scene".

11:00 Miss Edith Mirrielee will give the fourth of her lectures on "The Structure of the Short Story", entitled "Plausibility".

At 8:00 P.M. this evening Mr. John Mason Brown will lecture on "The Theatre as Reviewed".

UNFORTUNATE INCIDENT:

Mr. R. L. Brown is highly satisfied with the exchange of grey top-coats which took place in Treman Cottage on Saturday evening, but is willing to swap back again in case the other person was not playing for keeps.

SNAP-SHOTS:

Wednesday morning the picture exchange will be changed for a new group of prints, so please sign up for the first bunch, if you wish any, before tomorrow.

TEA SOME MORE:

For those who are anxious to know the tea room hours, they are as follows:

3:30 - 5:00

8:45 - 9:45

GUESTS:

The Conference is sorry that Mr. & Mrs. Kimball Flaccus and Mr. & Mrs. Alexander Laing had to leave after such a short stay at the Inn. Mr. Laing was a fellow here several years ago and Mr. Flaccus is a well known poet.

August 26th, Wednesday

LECTURES:

9:00 Mr. John Mason Brown will talk on

"Dramatic Dialogue".

10:00 Mr. Robert Hillyer will give the fourth of his lectures on "The Technique of Verse".

11:00 Mrs. Everitt will speak on "The Money Touch".

This evening at 8:00 P.M. Mr. Gorham Munson will speak on his favorite topic "Literature and Propoganda". Discussion afterwards is invited.

PUBLICATION ADVICE.

One of the objects which the Conference tries to accomplish for its members is to provide the most responsible and expert advice on all matters pertaining to publication. All the staff members hold themselves ready to give suggestions as far as they are able, and when they may be appropriate. But it is a particular satisfaction to us to count Mr. & Mrs. Raymond Everitt as members of the staff with special and official responsibility for publication advice. Any member of the Conference who is in need of or ready for information about agents, rights of all kinds -- serial, book publication, dramatic, and all the rest -- royalties, contracts, formalities of submitting ms. or of dealing with editors, will find Mr. & Mrs. Everitt ready to give the benefit of their extensive experience in publishing and agenting.

Two round-table discussions have been planned to facilitate the asking of all questions in regard to publication which Conference members may wish to present.

The first will be conducted by Mr. Everitt on Thursday afternoon at 2:00 P.M., and will deal mainly with questions of book publication, contracts, and rights. The second will be conducted by Mrs. Everitt on Friday afternoon at 2:00, and will deal mainly with questions of magazine publication. Personal interviews with Mr. Everitt may also be arranged.

It should be remembered that the Conference itself does not seek to act as an agent or to make sales of material directly for its members. Its function is primarily to provide the best and most responsible advice it can offer.

May we say again that we should like to receive any information about published books or magazine contributions by present or past members of the Conference.

GUESTS.

The Conference welcomes Mr. & Mrs. Lee Simonson who are the guests of Professor and Mrs. Wilson.

REMINDER.

Inn guests not registered in the Conference are reminded that they are eligible to attend morning lectures upon payment of the proper fee in Mr. Morrison's office. Evening lectures are open to all, without payment.

SWIMMING:

Athletic members of the Conference will enjoy swimming in the pool just upstream from the saw-mill on the Ripton road - a delightful spot with water warm enough. The Inn taxi will take swimmers for $.25 each round trip.

VISITOR:

The Conference enjoyed the visit of Mr. Walter Collins O'Kane, editor of the Harper's Handbook Series.

August 27, 1936 Thursday

LECTURES:

9:00 Mr. John Mason Brown will talk on

"Dramatic Form"

10:00 Mr. Bernard DeVoto will continue his discussions with "Beginners' Errors"

11:00 Mrs. Julia Peterkin will give "Suggestions for Novel Writers".

This evening at 8.00 P. M. Mr. Robert Hillyer will read from his recent poetry.

SECOND WEEK'S PROGRAM:

This morning's lectures are the last of the general morning lectures of the Conference. Members of the staff will continue to give evening talks and afternoon discussions may be held from time to time. But beginning with Friday, the twenty-eighth, the mornings of the Conference will be devoted to classes for actual criticism of manuscript, according to the plan outlined at the beginning of the session.

Please notice that whereas members of the Conference have hitherto been free to attend all lectures on a given morning, it may now be necessary to make a choice, since several classes may be running simultaneously. Staff members in charge of classes will as far as possible post in advance the titles of the work to be discussed, so that the authors may be informed; or the staff members may inform the authors by a note in the mail box.

A complete and detailed schedule of Friday morning's program will be published in the Crumb for Friday. Please study it carefully.

HOE-DOWN:

After to-night's reading by Mr. Hillyer, some people may care to go down to the community house in Ripton where a typical Vermont square dance will be held. The dance will commence about 9:30 after the Riptonites have finished Bingo.

HIKING:

Conference members interested in hiking or pleasant walking may be interested in the pamphlet published by Middlebury College, "Guide to the Vicinity of Bread Loaf and Middlebury". This guide gives in great detail all the directions for steps to the best and most scenic walks. Copies will be given to any persons calling for them at Mr. Morrison's office.

ERROR:

The Crumb apologizes for having mixed the visitors. Mr. William Flaccus was the fellow at the Conference of three years ago, Mr. Laing being merely a visitor. Mr. Alexander Laing is the well known author of "Wind and Physic" and the recently published "Sea Witch".

VERMONT:

Publicity material available at the Director's office includes the 1936 edition of the guide for Vermont hotels, tourist homes, and cabins. In most attractive format is the letter written by Mrs. Dorothy Canfield Fisher, entitled "Vermont Summer Homes".

9:00 Mr. John Mason Brown will have a Drama Clinic, criticizing a long manuscript play. Classroom #3

10:00 Mrs. Everitt will take charge of the Short Story clinic, taking up "Points of Construction", illustrated by manuscript. Classroom #4

10:00 At this same hour Mr. Stevens and Mr. DeVoto will take the Novel Clinic. The stories criticized will be "Carmela of the Bar L", "Man in the Boat", and "Sodeuster". Classroom #1

11:00 Mr. Hillyer will conduct the Verse Clinic with discussion of certain manuscripts submitted. It may be well to prepare questions to bring to the clinic. Members are requested to bring pencil and paper. Classroom #5

12:00 Clinic on articles conducted by Mr. Munson will illustrate the actual editing of a manuscript for publication. Classroom #3

2:00 P. M. In the second of the round tables on publication, Mrs. Everitt will deal principally with problems of magazine publication.

8:00 Miss Josephine Johnson will give the evening lecture.

TENNIS.

A men's singles tennis tournament has been proposed. An entry sheet is posted on the Bulletin board, and all interested are asked to post their names at once. Entries will be closed at noon today, and matches must be played by Sunday. A fee of $1.50 to pay for balls will be requested of each entrant.

THE CRUMB

will call the dances and many of the Ripton people will be present to help beginners in the figures. A silver collection will be taken, the proceeds to go to the Ripton Community Fund.

CORRECTION:

The Crumb apologizes for an error in its address list. Mrs. Marion Judd's permanent address is 812 Park Avenue, New York, N.Y.

GUEST:

Miss Shirley Barker, last year's fellow and author of "Dark Hill's Under", was a welcome visitor of the Conference.

AVE ATQUE VALE:

Members who are planning their journies homeward should note that Wednesday, September 2, is the final working day of the Conference, and that breakfast on Thursday is the final meal. On Wednesday morning the usual ms. clinics will be held, while the evening hour, beginning at 8 P. M., will be devoted to closing exercises. It is hoped that the Conference prizes may be awarded at this time.

As the night train from Middlebury leaves at 11:17 P.M. Daylight Saving Time, there will be time for members leaving Wednesday night to attend the closing exercises. Such members should be certain to arrange for railway reservations and taxi service to Middlebury. Forms for this purpose will be distributed Monday morning.

The Conference will provide transportation from Bread Loaf to Middlebury for members who leave at the formal closing time on Thursday.

RETURN:

Allene Corliss, the well known serial writer, made her usual visit to the Conference. The Conference was most sorry that her visit this year was of shorter duration than formerly

TAXI:

Now that the weekend is approaching with plenty of free time for all, the taxi is available at all times at $.15 per mile for the car.

CARS:

Mr. Walls is eager to wash cars for $.75 or to simonize them according to the length of the car.

Monday, August 31st

LECTURES:

- 9:00 Mr. John Mason Brown will conduct the Drama Clinic in Classroom #3
- 9:30 Mr. DeVoto will conduct the Novel Clinic with the aid of Mr. Stevens. "The Door Of Joppa" will be opened for discussion. Classroom #4
- 10:00 Mr. Morrison will conduct the Short Story Clinic. MS. taken up in class will be "Second Fiddle", "Under the Apple Tree", and "Mrs. Miller". Time permitting, "The Red Devil Bomber" and "Understanding" will be criticized. Classroom #5.
- 11:00 Miss Josephine Johnson will conduct the Verse Clinic in Classroom #1.
- 12:00 Mr. Munson will conduct a clinic on Articles, limited to Students only, entitled "Becoming a Writer". Classroom #3
- 8:00 Mr. Bernard DeVoto will give "Uncle Wiggily's Hints to Writers" as the evening lecture.

TRANSPORTATION:

At your table this morning are transportation blanks. It is most important that everyone fill out a blank and leave it in the Director's office before Tuesday morning. Please ask Mr. Parker if you are doubtful about ticket validation, schedules, or taxis.

LINOLEUM PRINTS:

Some unusual linoleum prints of local interest are on exhibit in the library. These are for sale at $1 apiece.

BIBLIOGRAPHY:

Mr. Hillyer regrets that he forgot to recommend some books to the group studying verse. The books suggested are as follows:

- "Oxford book of English Poetry" (the new edition)
- Untermeyer - "Modern American & British Poetry" (1936 ed.)
- Alden - "Handbook of English Verse" (for beginners)
- Baum - "Principles of English Versification" (for advanced students)

GERMAN BOOKS:

Mr. Parker will have a last sale of German books and prints in the blue parlor after supper this evening.

HOME:

Anyone driving to or near Tulsa, Oklahoma who would like to have someone help with the driving, please get in touch with Bob Whitehand sometime before Tuesday noon.

STAFF PICTURE:

A group photograph of staff and fellows is being shown on the bulletin board, priced at $.50. Orders and money should be left at the bookstore or in Mr. Morrison's office.

FACULTY BOOKS:

A new shipment of faculty books is expected to arrive at the bookstore this morning. If you have ordered any, or wish to purchase any, please stop by the bookstore after lunch.

Tuesday, September 1st

LECTURES:

- 9:00 Mr. J.M. Brown will have the Drama Clinic in Classroom #3.
- 10:00 Mrs. Everitt will take points from the group on the Short Story. Mr. DeVoto will be there. Classroom #4.
